

Where Does the Church Stand?

Anne, a lay apostle, lives in the Kilmore Diocese in Ireland. In the spirit of obedience to the Magisterium of the Church, this entire body of work has been submitted to Anne's bishop, Most Reverend Leo O'Reilly, as well as to the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith for formal examination. In the meantime, Bishop O'Reilly has given permission for the publication of the written works.

Questions about the apostolate can be directed to Fr. Darragh Connolly in the Ireland office. Father Connolly was assigned by Bishop O'Reilly as full-time chaplain to the apostolate in 2006.

"In so far as I am able to judge, she [Anne] is orthodox in her writings and teaching. Her spirituality and the spiritual path that she proposes to those who wish to accept it are in conformity with the teachings of the Church and of the great spiritual writers of the past and present."

PROMISE FROM JESUS TO LAY APOSTLES

May 12, 2005

Your message to souls remains constant. Welcome each soul to the rescue mission. You may assure each lay apostle that just as they concern themselves with My interests, I will concern Myself with theirs. They will be placed in My Sacred Heart and I will defend and protect them. I will also pursue complete conversion of each of their loved ones. So you see, the souls who serve in this rescue mission as My beloved lay apostles will know peace. The world cannot make this promise as only heaven can bestow peace on a soul. This is truly heaven's mission and I call every one of heaven's children to assist Me. You will be well rewarded, My dear ones.

Allegiance Prayer

Dear God in heaven, I pledge my allegiance to You. I give You my life, my work and my heart. In turn, give me the grace of obeying Your every direction to the fullest possible extent. Amen.

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You the prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, and for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen.

LAY APOSTOLATE OF JESUS CHRIST THE RETURNING KING

A New Movement in the Catholic Church

The Lay Apostolate of Jesus Christ the Returning King is a new movement in the Catholic Church. This movement calls people to greater personal unity with Jesus Christ. As we become more aware of His presence, accepting His love and healing, we are then able to bring His light and love to those around us. By allowing Jesus to love others through us, we call them back into the safety of the family of God. Jesus calls this a rescue mission for souls. It involves people accepting their call to both personal holiness and service in the Church.

The Rescue Mission

This rescue mission began in 2003 when Anne, a wife and mother of six, was asked by Our Lord to start recording a spiritual journal. Through a process called interior locution, Anne recorded ten small books entitled The Volumes. The writings reveal a path to personal holiness that focuses on unity with Jesus Christ. In them is found love and encouragement, as well as clear guidance in how Jesus desires that we conduct ourselves during this time of renewal.

The Volumes

The "Heaven Speaks" booklet series

Jesus gave Anne messages directed to groups of people in special need of His help. Anne recorded twenty short "Heaven Speaks" booklets containing messages from Jesus, the saints and the Blessed Mother.

Lay Apostles of Jesus Christ the Returning King

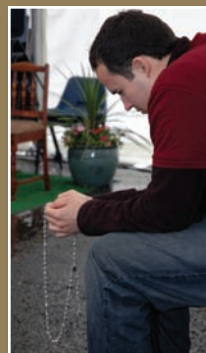

We seek to be united to Jesus in our daily work, and through our vocations, in order to obtain graces for the conversion of sinners. We pledge our allegiance to God the Father. Through our cooperation with the Holy Spirit, we will allow Jesus to flow through us into the world, bringing His light. We do this in union with Mary, our Blessed Mother, with the Communion of Saints, with all of God's holy angels, and with our fellow lay apostles in the world.

As lay apostles of Jesus Christ the Returning King, we agree to perform our basic obligations as practicing Catholics. Additionally, we will adopt the following spiritual practices, as best we can:

1. Allegiance Prayer and Morning Offering, and a brief prayer for the Holy Father.
2. One hour of Eucharistic Adoration each week.
3. Participation in a monthly lay apostle prayer group, which includes the Luminous Mysteries of the Holy Rosary, and the reading of the Monthly Message.
4. Monthly Confession
5. Further, we will follow the example of Jesus Christ as set out in Holy Scripture, treating all others with His patience and kindness.

Five Luminous Mysteries

1. The Baptism of Jesus
2. The Wedding at Cana
3. The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God
4. The Transfiguration
5. The Institution of the Eucharist

Direction for Our Times

Since 2004, Direction for Our Times has been spreading the mission worldwide, primarily by translating and distributing the writings, publishing a newsletter, supporting the formation of lay apostle prayer groups, forming a youth division and a marriage ministry, and by sponsoring Eucharistic Days of Renewal.

Currently, most of our writings are available at no cost on the internet and we rejoice in the efforts of apostles worldwide who download and spread these writings. More information and free access to the writings, audio files and video files can be found at www.directionforourtimes.org.

Vocations

Jesus continues to call young people to discern their vocations to serve the Church in this apostolate. Currently, two young men from our discernment houses are studying for the priesthood, for the Kilmore Diocese in Ireland.

Young women, also called, are discerning their vocations contributing their many gifts to this apostolate.

Please contact us for further information if you feel you are being called to discern a vocation in this apostolate.
